Launch of the NABCOP Annual Report postponed by pre-election purdah

We have been informed by the Healthcare Quality Improvement Partnership (HQIP) that - due to the pre-election purdah - we must postpone the planned publication of the first NABCOP Annual Report, on the 15 May, at the Association of Breast Surgery (ABS) conference. Specifically:

“NHS England has advised HQIP that the pre-election period (‘Purdah’) is 22 April 2017 to 19 June 2017 inclusive. During the pre-election period, unpublished HQIP-commissioned reports, including NCAPOP reports, cannot be released for publication.”

We will advise you of the revised publication date as soon as it has been agreed. In the meantime, please contact us via nabcop@rcpeng.ac.uk if you have any queries about this.

Please visit the NABCOP Website for more information on this HQIP-funded project within the National Clinical
